

A Diamond-Treaty is Forever, Cathy Calfchild and Carrie Lester, March 25, 2013. Photo courtesy Nicky Young.

Make an attention grabbing sign to raise awareness about the topic you researched from the Recognizing Settler Colonialism page from nandogikendan.com. Include a phrase that sums up the issue and a clever visual.

What are 3 important facts about the topic to memorize for when someone comes up and asks you what your sign is about?

Explain how the issue violates the Spirit and Intent of the treaties.

Share an Indigenous perspective that gives insight on the issue to support your understanding of it and your explanation of it.

Sign Assignment

/ 25 marks

Almost there... (1-3 marks)	Meets Criteria for this assignment (4 marks)	Exceeds Expectations (5 marks)
	Visual Aspect Thoughtfully addresses the issue you studied Strong use of design principles to attract attention
	Phrase Sums up the problem and enhances the impact of the image
	3 Important Facts Thoughtfully chosen to reflect the crux of the problem Strong use of information from the links
	Spirit and Intent of the Treaties Accurate explanation of how particular treaty and wampum agreements are being violated with specific details from the links
	Indigenous Voice Thoughtfully chosen to provide insight that supports your understanding of this issue	